

VISIT...

Gainsborough's House SUDBURY

Wednesday 17th April 2024

At the recently refurbished and extended family home of Thomas Gainsborough, we will see his masterpieces, alongside delightful personal collections of the Suffolk artists John Constable and Cedric Morris. Temporary exhibitions will show the work of portrait painter László (1869-1937) and illustrator Gravelot (1699-1773).

Philip de László Master of Elegance

"His relentless energy, charisma and pursuit of perfection in his art saw his circle of patronage widen from Budapest, the city of his birth, via the princely houses of Europe."

Gainsborough's House website

Our visit will include.....

An introductory talk to set the scene and give a background to the life and work of Gainsborough and the artists featured in the temporary exhibitions.

Free time to wander through the many galleries and rooms and the beautiful garden.

Sandwich lunch, tea/coffee in the meeting room.

COST (coffee, tea, talk, all exhibitions, lunch, coach travel)

£46pp (£38 with Art Pass)

Contact Tricia Findley (info@theartsocietywoodbridge.org.uk)

www.theartsocietywoodbridge.org.uk

Image:© Hufton + Crow

Full day with coach travel

DEPARTS

Deben Leisure Centre:
coach will depart at 8.45am

From Gainsborough's House:
coach will leave approx 2.45pm

ARRIVAL TIME back in Woodbridge approx 4.15pm

ACCESS A lift gives access to most of the upper floor spaces.

Booking form on the website