

VISIT...

The Sainsbury Centre

"This international art museum in Norwich, within the University of East Anglia campus, is housed in Norman Foster's first major public building. Affectionately known as 'The Hangar', it shows ancient, modern and ethnographic art collections, exhibited in light-filled, modernist spaces."

[Sainsbury Centre website]

Wednesday 22nd March 2023

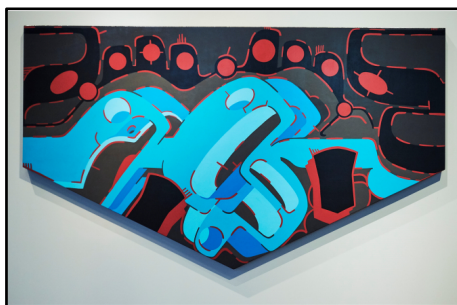

Our visit will include.....

Guided tour - Sainsbury family collection in The Living Space

Sandwich lunch in the Modern Life Café

Sculpture Park (optional self-guided walk)

Free time to view other galleries or relax in the Terrace Café

.....and the NEW Exhibition

Empowering Art: Indigenous Art of NW America

COST (guided tour, exhibition, lunch, coach) £40
Not included are coffee, tea etc from the Terrace café.
Booking form on the website (documents section)

DEPARTURE TIME

Deben Leisure Centre - coach will depart at 8.30am
From the Sainsbury Centre - coach will leave at 3.15pm

ARRIVAL TIME back in Woodbridge approximately 4.45pm

Contact Tricia Findley (info@theartsocietywoodbridge.org.uk)

Image; Sonny Assu, Dance As Though the Ancestors Are Watching
2019, acrylic paint, © Courtesy of the Artist